BIG DAY'S WORK BY EDUCATIONISTS

Commissioners of Public Instruction Do Solid Work Today.

NEW SCHEDULE FOR TEACHERS' PAYROLL

Comprehensive Grading for Different Kinds of Service—Regulations for Prevention of Communicable Disease.

There was a meeting of the Commissioners of Public Instruction this morning, Superintendent Alatau T. Atkinson presiding.

The following appointments were made on recommendation of the teachers' committee:

Royal School, D. C. Little, substitute for Mr. Mackintosh.

Kaahumanu, Miss Ada Gertz, transferred from Emma street.

Emma street, Miss Ada Lycett, transferred from Moanalua.

Moanalua, Miss Mollie Grace, from Normal school.

Pohukaina, Miss Victoria Jordan, transferred from Waiānana.

Waiānana, Miss Bertha Ben Taylor and Miss Emily Williams, reappointed to this school.

Wahiawa, Miss Ada H. Parker.

Nihoa, James McGill.

Kaupakulua, J. S. Medeiros, transferred from Haou.

Haou, Miss Jennie Kawalaia.

Night school, Kawaiahae, Mrs. J. B. Hopkins.

Kamaea, Miss Lulu Meinecke.

Night school, Moiliili, A. S. Medeiros, transferred from Kaupakulua.

Olaa, Brock McStay, assistant normal and training; Miss J. Valentine Spitzer.

Kipahulu, Miss Emily Toomey.

Hilo Union, Mrs. Lora Shoemaker.

Reformatory, Marshall Panoast.

Wailuku, Miss Rowena Richardson.

The board adopted a new teachers' pay schedule, with the following rules to govern it:

"This schedule is not to be considered in the nature of a contract between the department and teachers, but may be altered or suspended at any time if it be not deemed necessary.

"Schools will be classified and salaries fixed at the beginning of each school year. Satisfactory service will only entitle a teacher to rise in salary.

"Teachers obtaining normal certificates will be allowed one year's experience. Half of the time taught in the United States outside of Hawaii will be allowed.

"A teacher promoted to a higher position will begin at the lowest salary of that position, and if for one year his service has been satisfactory, all previous experience may be allowed.

"Competent teachers in undesirable locations or where living is unusually expensive may be paid above the schedule.

"Teachers of school with an enrollment under 45 will be classed as assistants.

"The Royal, Kailua, Kaahumanu, Honolulu Normal and Hilo Union schools are hereby recognized as of equal class, and the principals of which will receive a salary of $200 per month without regard to length of service."

Then follows the schedule in which principals are graded from one to twenty years, grammar school teachers from one to ten years, normal school from one to five years and elementary school from one to fifteen years.

The monthly payroll of teachers according to the revised schedule is apportioned as follows: Hawaii, $6104; Maui, $2647; Molokai, $380; Oahu, $10,139; Kauai and Nihoa, $2295; total, $22,556.

The meeting adopted the following regulation for the protection of the schools from contagious diseases, in conformity with recent correspondence had with the Board of Health:

All teachers employed by the Department of Public Instruction must at the commencement of their service and on or before the first of August in each year thereafter, present to the department a certificate from regularly licensed practitioner, stating that they are free from tuberculosis or other communicable disease, and that they are physically able to discharge the duties of teachers.

Blanks for certificates will be prepared and forwarded to the school agents, who will furnish them to teachers as may be needed.

Health certificates as provided for above are to be forwarded to the secretary of the department before the beginning of the coming term.

ROAR FROM HILO

Hilo, Aug. 25.—The general activity on the part of the Republicans and Democrats is causing considerable comment, more especially relative to the Republicans, who might just as well be without a Territorial committee, for all the ice which it seems to cut. A gentleman recently in conversation with a Tribune representative, said: "Unless some action is taken soon it might just as well not be taken at all. The time for election is almost here and no nominations have been made nor campaign work done, except by the Independents, who as matters stand now are likely to carry everything. Action should be taken by both parties and the lines should not be too sharply drawn between Democrats and Republicans, more especially so far as local issues are concerned and so far as good candidates are nominated, as it seems likely they will be by both parties. The Independents in their determination to win everything on race lines, and incited thereto by their demagogic leaders are likely to make many nominations unfit for office; every respectable, intelligent man who has the good of the Territory at stake, without regard to race or party should work for the election of good men, at this vital period of the political life of Hawaii."

Relative to Congressional delegates another gentleman practically spoke on the same lines. He said: "Upon the personnel of the Congressional delegate, although he has no vote, the future of Hilo largely depends. If the proposed Independent candidate, Wilcox, who is nothing more or less than a discredited demagogue, is sent, it means simply nothing or worse than nothing for the Territory as a whole. On the other hand a man nominated by either of the other parties, who is simply a Honoluluite devoted simply to the interests of that town even to the detriment of the rest of the Territory, is not the one we want. We should probably not look for the nomination of a purely local man. Nor is it necessary. It is more than possible that a man from Maui or Kauai could be settled upon, who would gain the general support of the voters of the whole group and justify it by working unpartially for all the islands. I think H. P. Baldwin of Maui is such a man, and I believe from what I have learned in conversation with both Democrats and Republicans here that they would support him. In any case Hilo should settle upon someone whom it believes to be a good man for all, and who can be elected, and find out whether he will not be so acceptable to the rest of the group that he can be run with hope of election. It is time some action was taken by the responsible men of the country."

SCHOOLHOUSE TENDERS

Tenders for fitting up a portion of the Aala warehouse for school purposes were opened at the Education office this morning as follows:

David K. Willis, $5,047.

Albert Trask, $3,400.

J. A. Butterfield, $3,175.

J. A. Bertelmann, $2,489.

Wm. T. Patv, $2,350.

W. H. Russell, $1,978.

British Mule Ships.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The Department of State is in receipt of a dispatch from the Consul General of the United States at Cape Town, dated July 29th, relating further to the shipment of American citizens as muleteers at New Orleans on British transports. In this instance Mr. Stowe reports that he sends home free all who apply to him, but adds:

"I no sooner clear one vessel than another comes into port with Americans who have been so foolish as to ship with mules for this country. Over 500 have arrived, and further shipment of these muleteers ought to be prevented. The means used to obtain men at New Orleans as told me by the men, are simply disgraceful."

Molokai Delegates

D. H. Kahalelelo of Molokai arrived in Honolulu last night. He announced this morning that the following would undoubtedly be elected from the island of Maui to the District convention: J. K. Kaupu, Joli Kahinu, E. Lilliehua and J. H. Mahoe.

Has Leased Spray.

T. W. Hobron has leased the yacht Spray for several weeks and intends to race her in the regular.

Paul Loubet, son of President Loubet of France, has received the degree of LL. D. from the University of France. His doctorate thesis was on "The Bank of France and Discount," and the jury complimented him on his birthday.

DIVORCE MILL RUNNING DOUBLE

Both the Circuit Judges Are Hearing Tales of Conjugal Woes.

BILL OF EXCEPTIONS IN DISMISSED CASES

Engineer Hasson Wants His Pay for Developing Palawai—Gomes Gets Judgment—The Federal Court.

Judge Silliman granted the divorce of Ernest H. Austin against May H. Austin on the ground of habitual intemperance, the other ground of libel not being considered. No defense was set up. L. Andrews and F. E. Thompson for libellant; Davis & Gear for defendant.

Robertson & Wilder have filed bills of exceptions to three separate rulings of Judge Humphreys in several cases of appeal from Koolau District Court, the first ruling being to strike the cases from the calendar for unreadiness and the subsequent ones refusing to reinstate the cases. The exceptions are on the ground that the rulings were each "contrary to law and an abuse of discretion on the part of the Court."

W. F. C. Hasson sues the Palawai Development Association for $1600 for services rendered in investigating and developing the water supply at Palawai, Island of Lanai.

Judge Silliman has signed an order substituting Annie Holt for J. S. Walker as guardian of Eliza Holt, a minor daughter of John D. Holt Sr. It appeared that no personal property of the minor had come into the hands of the guardian and that her only property consisted of unproductive real estate in Honolulu.

Judgment has been entered for $1 damages for libel in favor of J. E. Gomes against the Hawaiian Gazette Co. and H. M. Whitney. The bill of costs is $50.50.

There was no business before the Federal Court this morning, and Judge Estee took recess until 2 p. m. He will then award the wages due the sailors of the libeled bark Empire.

Judge Humphreys denied the motion for alimony in the divorce suit of Rose Miner vs. Frank Leslie Miner. F. M. Hatch for libellant; Kinney, Ballou & McClanahan and C. Brown for libelee.

William L. Peterson was granted a divorce from Alice A. Peterson.

The motion to vacate the order of alimony in the case of Nina I. Flint vs. Harry W. Flint was denied. Magoon & Long for libellant; Henshall for libelee.

JOHN GOUVEA AND WIFE.

John Gouvea, a Portuguese, charged with wife desertion, appeared in the Police Court this forenoon. He acted as his own attorney while Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth conducted the prosecution.

Mrs. Gouvea took the stand and testified that her husband intended leaving her and her six months' old child without any money. She found out he was going to Kona and had him arrested. He didn't tell her a thing about going. The only money she had was some she took away from her husband on Sunday and even this was nearly all gone.

Continuing, Mrs. Gouvea said: "I didn't want John to go away from me because I love him but I didn't want him to leave me unprotected. I heard that he said to one of his friends: 'He hasn't any money she can go and work for it.'"

When Gouvea began to ask questions, there was a scene and a flow of language, particularly from Mrs. Gouvea, that was only stopped by the timely intervention of Judge Wilcox who called a halt by saying: "The place for a certain lecture is in a bedroom, not in a court room."

Gouvea accused his wife of all manner of spiteful things. There had very evidently been a lot of trouble in the family. He stated that Mrs. Gouvea did not seem to care to listen to what he had to say. She would run to her mother's house when this had been expressly prohibited. One day he took some meat home and his wife hid it away until it spoiled. Then she threw it out a window. On learning he was going to Kona, she remarked to a neighbor: "I don't care if he never comes back."

His intention in going away was to search for work. He had always provided well for his wife and there was no need of her saying there were no provisions in the house for he had credit at a grocery store near to his house.

Judge Wilcox stated that there was no law to prevent a man going from one part of the Territory to another. He then asked Gouvea if he intended to go back to his wife and take care of her. Upon an answer in the affirmative being given, Gouvea was told to go. The law stated that the Court should try to reconcile parties concerned in such family squabbles and, succeeding, nothing else was prescribed by the law.

CO. F VICTORIOUS.

The second team of Co. F and the second team of the police shot a rifle match this morning which resulted in a victory for the soldier boys to the tune of 384 to 356. Following were the individual scores:

Co. F—Short, 38; Drake, 37; Costa, 41; Sybolt, 37; P. Costa, 38; B. Specdor, 40; Wirud, 40; Piper, 38; Hillebrand, 35, and Sylva, 40.

Police—Thomas, 34; Baker, 37; Moau, 37; Atatani, 41; R. Parker, Jr., 35; Needham, 39; Kawalaia, 36; Keatani, 33; Kamaka, 21, and Jack Kalakiela.

Very Thoughtful Plan.

S. M. Damon, head of the bank of Bishop & Co., has won fresh regard of the employees of the institution. He has fitted up a club room in the Friend block, where the insurance and savings branches are situated, where they may enjoy their lunches in comfort. Culinary appliances are included, so that the clerks can have hot tea, coffee or chocolate, steak or chops, etc., and a janitor capable of plain cooking is employed. Papers and magazines are provided.

WATER COLOR EXHIBIT

BY MR. BRIDGMAN OF SALEM, MASS.

Twenty-five Masterly Water Colors
Mostly on Local Topics—Some
Remnants of Kilohana Art
League's Exhibit.

Many members of the Kilohana Art League have visited the exhibition of water colors made by L. J. Bridgman, the illustrator and water color artist of Salem, Mass. It continues open from 2 to 5 o'clock this afternoon. Those who have not yet seen it should not miss this last opportunity.

There are twenty-five pictures in the exhibition. Most of them are on Hawaiian subjects. The works are superb. Excellent drawing, true perspective and clearest atmosphere characterize the studies. Certainly nothing finer, if anything approaching them, in water colors have ever been exhibited in Honolulu. The works represent about two months of Mr. Bridgman's sojourn here.

One picture shows the wall of the High School grounds with flowering shrubbery appearing above it and a Chinaman with his double-burdened carrying pole trotting along the street in the foreground. The colors are laid on with remarkable fidelity. A perfect gem is a small landscape with a cluster of palms in the foreground and a tropical vista behind. A avenue of royal palms is another fine production.

The gallery still contains remnants from the League's latest exhibition, including some of Mrs. Marshall's universally admired studies of Hawaiian flower compositions.

Cricket Today.

There will be a cricket match on the Makiki recreation grounds this afternoon if all goes well. The teams are as follows:

Honolulu Cricket Club—Messrs. D. W. Anderson (captain), R. A. Jordan, R. Anderson, H. B. Sinclair, A. R. Hatfield, J. W. Harvey, A. W. Bottomley, F. Seymour, J. F. Waldron, W. Stanley, O. St. John Gilbert and J. Catton.

Ships in the Harbor—Messrs. Neddie, Fowler, Dickson, Young (Dunregan); Draper, Holland, Walker, Buck, Rankine (Dechmont); Lucas, Kelly, Aldridge (captain) (Kilmory); Wilson, Dampfl, Croston, Burnett (Halewood).

MYRTLE NOTES.

The junior crew of the Myrtle Boat Club made a record last week that shows the boys to be in excellent shape. In rowing over the Pearl Harbor course they made better time than either the junior or senior crews of last year.

NATIVE HATS AND PUGGAREES.

Full line of above goods are shown in Iwakami Hat Manufacturing Department.

Great sale of boots and shoes at 5 cents on the dollar at L. B. Kerr & Co.'s shoe house, corner of Fort and Hotel streets.

LILUOKALANI IS RESTRAINED

C. B. Wilson's Response to Former Queen's Ejectment Suit.

FOR TWENTY YEARS HER CONFIDANT

She Gave Him His Home As recompense but, According to His Declaration, Would Now Unjustly Turn Him Out.

Liliuokalani Dominis, former Queen of the Hawaiian Islands, has been temporarily restrained by injunction, signed by Judge Humphreys, from proceeding with an action of ejectment against Chas. B. Wilson with $1000 damages claimed, for the premises at Young and Piikoi street which Wilson occupied as his home. Liliuokalani is further enjoined against conveying, alienating or encumbering the property in question until further order of the Court.

Chas. B. Wilson, in the bill in equity he has brought against the former Queen, makes some interesting allegations. During the month of June, 1895, he sets forth, and for ten years and more prior thereto, he was the owner in fee simple of the premises in question. Up to the present time he has been in uninterrupted possession and enjoyment of the place as his home.

"That for twenty years prior to, and at the date above-mentioned," Wilson goes on to say, "and for some time thereafter plaintiff was the trustee friend and confidential adviser of said defendant (Liliuokalani); that during the majority of the said time he faithfully devoted his entire time and attention to the safe care and conduct of the defendant's property interests and business transactions, and while engaged in such capacity this plaintiff rendered said defendant services of great value."

For such valuable services he had never been paid though often promised to be.

In June, 1895, the premises in question were advertised to be sold under foreclosure of mortgage originally made to H. R. Macfarlane and assigned to Sam. C. Allen. At that time Queen Liliuokalani was confined in the Palace as a prisoner, under authority of the Republic of Hawaii.

On one of Wilson's regular morning visits to her, as her confidential adviser, she directed his attention to the threatened sale of his home, and offered to buy the property for himself and his wife Eveline.

Wilson advised the Queen that, as she was in duress, a question might thereafter be raised as to the validity of any of her business transactions in that condition. It might even be alleged that he had taken advantage of her distress to obtain a conveyance of the property. Therefore he advised her to have the property deeded in trust to Cecil Brown for the benefit of himself and wife.

This was done. Liliuokalani delivered the deeds and declaration of trust to Wilson and informed him that if at any time he became financially able he might pay the amount expended, and that in any event the premises should be a home for Mr. and Mrs. Wilson during the terms of their natural lives.

Thereafter, Mrs. Wilson having died in the meantime, Liliuokalani, through Jos. O. Carter, who succeeded her as business agent when the plaintiff entered the employment of the Hawaiian Carriage Co., "fraudulently" represented that as she was going to liquidate certain property to Mrs. Townsland, plaintiff's wife's mother, or to plaintiff's wife, she requested that the deeds and declaration of trust be returned to her.

The documents were so returned to her. Jos. O. Carter returned the deeds and declaration of trust to Cecil Brown and caused, later, a deed of the property to be executed to Liliuokalani.

In 1898 Jos. O. Carter advised Wilson to leave the premises. He refused. Wilson declares that since the defendant gave him the property, he had expended $500 in its improvement.

Among the prayers of his bill, Mr. Wilson asks that Liliuokalani be subpoenaed to appear and answer truly all questions put to her regarding the transactions alleged. He, however, waives the requirement of her answering under oath. He will take her plain word of honor as decisive.

Beretania Tennis Club.

At a meeting of the Beretania Tennis Club this forenoon it was decided that the organization remain intact and that grounds nearer the center of the city be searched for. The following were appointed a committee to attend to this matter: Chas. Atherton, E. A. Ross and E. H. Paris.

LABOR DAY PARADE

The sub-committee of the labor unions appointed to arrange for the Labor Day parade have decided on the following order which will, of course, be subject to change.

Band.
Mounted Police.
Police on foot.

Grand Marshal W. C. Roe and aides.
Honolulu Fire Department.
Crew of U. S. S. Iroquois.

Workmen of all Trades, on foot.
Goddess of Liberty.

Two floats of school children, one of natives and one white.

Band.
National Guard of Hawaii, by consent.

Col. Jones.

The Honolulu Iron Works will have four floats, as follows:

Machine shop in motion.

One boiler shop, with boilermakers corking and chipping.

Pattern shop, with gear wheels in motion.

Blacksmith shop, with men at work.

Tim. Murray, with blacksmith shop.

J. Nott, a float.

J. Emmeluth & Co., a float.

Pacific Cylinders Co., a float.

Honolulu Sail Loft, a float.

Neither the aides nor the Goddess of Liberty have been chosen yet. It is understood that the choice lies between four young ladies, the names of whom are not given, for obvious reasons. A prize of $50 will be awarded the best arranged and most attractive float.

Lincoln's Running Mate.

Speaking of Vice Presidents, here is an anecdote of the man who was Lincoln's first running mate: In Hannibal Hamlin's earlier days, a certain caucus in Hampden, Maine, the only attendees were himself and a citizen of large stature. Mr. Hamlin had some resolutions to pass which began by representing that they were presented to a "large and respectable" gathering of voters. "Hold on," cried the other man, "we can't pass that, for it ain't true. It ain't a large and respectable caucus! There's only two of us." "You keep still, brother," commanded the wily Hannibal; "It's all right, for you are large and I am respectable. You just keep still." So the resolutions were passed without further demur, in the presence of a "large and respectable" gathering.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

While in Congress Jerry Simpson saved most of his salary and invested the money in land and cattle. He is now rated at $40,000. When he first went to Congress he had to borrow money to buy a railroad ticket.
